Tour for the last three years and plan to do a modified version of it again this year. I'm a self proclaimed "gear head" and live for driving our Miata on the race track. Since I was born with Mobile One in my veins, I'm pretty psyched about anything car related and am thrilled to be the club's "Grand Pubah" this year.

Our new VP, Rick Morris, has been in the club since 2000 and drives a white 92 with blue stripes. He was infected with Miata fever after driving his roommate's car one weekend. He's also known as "Doctor Detail", since his car always looks better than mine. He is an expert in paint cleaning, waxing and car care. Rick helped plan the "Can't See the Forest" rally last year, among others. I'm very happy to work with Rick this year, and I'm certain that his creativity and organization will be a huge asset to the club. If you need door magnets or name tags, Rick is the guy to see, as he is now keeper of those items.

The rest of the officers have carried over from last year: Barb Gentry - Membership, Pat Metheaux - Treasurer, Jim Nutt - Web Master, Sara J McBride - Open Road Editor. We may be adding a few additional posts this year, so stay tuned here for more info.

Happy New Year to all!

Time to Renew Club Membership

Yes, time does fly when you're having fun. Renewal time for your Indy Miata Club membership has rolled around again. So you don't miss out on any events, the Open Road, and other goodies please send your 2002 dues ($15.00) to:
