4. What kind of lights does your car have

- A. Stock head lamps
- B. Hella halogen
- C. Lucas Flamethrowers

(That reminds me of an old English car joke: Why do the English drink warm beer? They all have Lucas refrigerators!)

Any answer besides "C" puts you in the non-enthusiast wussy category. Poor me, once a hard core gear head, now reduced to auto wussydom. At least Teresa Turbo hasn't deserted me. Maybe I'll have her take me for a top-down ride. Heck it's above freezing today, I may even drive it topless (the car, not me!).

That's all for this month. Stay tuned for April when I describe the subtle differences between guibo's and CV joints.

Indy Auto Museum Tour 2002

March is here, and we have a very exciting and unique event planned. The bad news is that we could only schedule it at the end of the month... sorry for the long wait.

We have the unique opportunity to tour a special private auto collection at Royce Motors. This collection includes a very eclectic bunch of cars, ranging from Ferrari's and Jensen's to Pontiacs and Packards. (Article about Royce is in the December Open Road, page 2.)

There are several dozen cars in all, and each one has been restored to better than new condition. The museum curator has been kind enough to open the museum to us that morning.

After touring Royce Motors, we will embark upon a short west-side tour around Eagle Creek and end up at the famous Indianapolis Motor Speedway Museum. After touring that famous collection we will head to a local eatery for lunch. Please note, this is not a rally, it's a tour. You can go at your own pace and enjoy the drive. It should be a great time!!

Admission at Royce is FREE Admission at the Speedway is $3 PER PERSON, CASH

We'll meet at 9:45am, March 30th at the McDonalds at 71st & 465 (west side, Park 100)

We will hand out the tour maps, have a quick drivers meeting and be on the road by 10:15 SHARP! You must RSVP to Chuck Wills if you want to attend. All money will be collected the day of the event. Don't forget to bring cash to get into the Speedway Museum! Don't be square, see you there!
