Thinking of taking a Miata vacation? Miata Clubs and others across the US have organized events for the coming year. Here's your chance to travel and meet other Miata folk. Here's a listing of events from around the US.

Looking for a driving school? There are several scheduled in the surrounding area. The Rotary & Roadster Exposition and High Speed Drivers Education event is scheduled for June 14 & 15, 2003, Jefferson Circuit, at the Summit Point Raceway. Information to be updated at the Mazda Sportsclub of Washington's website soon: <http://www.mscw.com/m02sp/02sp.html>. The Jefferson Circuit is a road circuit designed especially for training use. Its specialty features emphasize advanced performance driving training and real world road conditions for other driver training events.

The 2003 Waterford Hills Driving School is on again, but the date is not set in stone. Right now it's tentatively scheduled for August 15 or 22, 2003 at the Waterford Hills Road Racing Track in Clarkston, MI. This is about a five hour drive from Indy. Contact Donald Wood at 586-431983 or email him at ndorfn90@hotmail.com for more information.
