A Cure For Cabin Fever?

March is kind of early in the year to have a roadster rally but if you have cabin fever as bad as John Schaub does, then get your car ready and meet him on Saturday, March 20th in Martinsville. We will meet at 10:00am at the McDonalds in Martinsville just west off State Route 37. Departure time is 10:30am.

We will end up in Nashville, IN and have lunch at The Ordinary restaurant. As you know, the weather in late March can be anywhere from sunny and 65 degrees to a horrible late winter storm, so this is definitely a weather permitting event. Please RSVP to John Schaub or register on the club web site.

If you have any questions or concerns John can be reached on his cell phone at 317-752-2769. Let's hope for top down weather!

A Cure For Cabin Fever? Pt. 2

Shake those cabin fever blues on March 20th down at the Slippery Noodle. That's right, we have two events on the same day!

Whether or not you enjoyed the drive to Nashville, join us for an evening at the famous Slippery Noodle Inn in downtown Indianapolis. This has become a club tradition. We all enjoy getting together and finding out what's been going on with our fellow club members and the Noodle is just the place for that.

We'll start arriving about seven (seating is always an adventure) and spend the night sharing good friends and excellent music.

"Miatas At The Vic"- Sure To Be A Hit!

Another new event has been added to our calendar, VP Ben Hermann has arranged a "Miatas At the Vic" night on June 26. This will be baseball at one great stadium, with friends and family. Hopefully we will have a warm summer night to watch the Indianapolis Indians take on the Syracuse Sky Chiefs.

Ben will be taking RSVP's and collecting the money for the tickets. As of right now, he has 50 box seats reserved at $11.00 each. We can add more if necessary, but need at least 25. The sooner you RSVP and pay, the better, so he can coordinate parking, tickets, and possibly dinner reservations.

RSVP for this event on the event page or call Ben at (317) 727-1401. Come enjoy a relaxing night at the best ballpark in the country.

Indy SCCA Autocross Test & Tune

Once again, the Indy Region of the SCCA is opening their Solo II season with their "Test & Tune" event on March 7. This event being held at 1501 W. 16th Street (old Bush Stadium) and is your chance to shake off the cobwebs and put your car through its paces. Registration and tech inspection runs from 8:00am until 10:00, driver's meeting at 10:15 and then cars start running at 10:30. Cost to participate is $15.00 for SCCA Members and $25.00 for Non-Members.

Not sure what autocrossing is all about? Stop by, watch and if you have questions, most competitors will answer them. Autocross is one way of finding your cars handling capabilities in a controlled environment. Check it out!

Check Safety Info For All Your Cars

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) has an informative website that you may want to view. It has information on recalls, a service bulletin database, crash testing data and more.

The site is located at: <http://www.nhtsa.dot.gov>.
